

'No Limits' @ HUS

Travel and Tourism

Identification of students:

Criteria:

Students who are working at Distinction level who also demonstrate a flair and enthusiasm for the subject. Those whose work shows ability beyond that which is expected for the level of assessment. Parents and students can also nominate, as well as the programme facilitator.

Review:

This will be done when assignments are submitted

Notification:

Learners will be notified by the programme leaders at the beginning of the year, this will also be discussed with parents.

Curriculum opportunities with 'No Limits' :

The BTEC First Certificate provides extension with the award of Distinction grade. Visits by employees in the industry into school and trips out to travel and tourism organisations will provide a deeper understating of the industry

Enrichment opportunities with 'No Limits':

Learners will be encouraged to pursue work experience in the area of Travel and Tourism. Links with Bedford College allow students in the 6th form to gain Selling Skills qualifications and achieve the nationally accredited Welcome Host certificate.
